Civil Contempt Petition No. 205 of 2005

Hon. P.C. Pant, J.

Heard Shri B.M. Pingal, learned counsel for the petitioner and Ms. Anjali, learned Standing Counsel for Union of India.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the order of which disobedience is complained, has been complied with by the respondents.

As such, this contempt petition has become infructuous.

Accordingly, the contempt petition is dismissed as infructuous.

Notices are discharged.

(P.C. Pant, J.)

Dt. 24.03.2006

Sweta